Three Women

NONFICTION

What happens to longing when your husband refuses to kiss you on the mouth? Journalist Taddeo spent eight years learning Lina's answer, as well as exploring the lives of Maggie, who raised her voice long before the #MeToo movement was mainstream, and Sloane, a restaurateur who tries to understand her own needs while having sex with people her husband selects for her. A revolutionary look at women's desire, this feat of journalism reveals three women who are carnal, brave and beautifully flawed.

The Golden Hour
NOVEL

In World War II Nassau, the Bahamas' governor—the Duke of Windsor—reigns with his infamous wife over the colony's louche expats, millionaires and spies. Sent to cover the glittery couple, a widowed reporter is drawn to their friend, the mysterious Benedict Thorpe. An addictive blend of historical drama, romance and thriller.

Body Leaping Backward

MEMOIR

Growing up in a prison town in the fracturing cultural landscape of the 1970s, the author descends into delinquency and angel-dust use—until her courage and a coworker help her forge a new path. A blazingly important memoir about the possibility of change.

New in Fiction

Ashley Dyer

The Cutting Room
A serial killer in Liverpool goes viral when he streams his killings—and gains social media followers. Disturbing and wickedly entertaining.

Sadie Jones

The Snakes
Money is the root of a host of badnesses in this novel about Bea, a billionaire's daughter determined not to be driven or corrupted by her father's wealth.

Howard Norman

The Ghost Clause
A writer's ghost tries to communicate with the couple now occupying his Vermont home—but only their cat senses his presence. Haunting on multiple levels.

Kid Pick!

Jonathan Stutzman

Llama Destroys the World

He eats too much cake, rips his pants and creates a black hole in the universe! Silly fun. (Ages 4-8)
